Track

With an obstacle filled 300 m length and 35 m elevation drop the track will be again a great challenge for Ice Cross Downhill beginners, upcoming Red Bull Crashed Ice athletes and current pros. It's starting with a skiing race style corner section that leads into a steep section to gain speed for the upcoming rhythm sections all the way to the famous uphill finish straight.

ATSX Registration

To be able to race you have to be registered on the ATSX Website. Furthermore you also have to pay the registration fee (see below).

ATSX Licence

You can only race with a valid ATSX License. Unfortunately, online payments are disabled at the moment on the ATSX website. Therefore, you'll have to pay the season license (€40) or event license (€15) on-site in cash (EURO).

Registration Fee

The registration fee for the race in Wagrain-Kleinarl is €50 and includes a Goodie bag, catering on Friday and Saturday, as well as participation in general. You can pay online via the following link: <https://goo.gl/uX1Fjq>.

Disclaimer / Starting Numbers

Please download the participant disclaimer via the ATSX website and bring it with you. The starting numbers will be handed out at the Tourist Office in Wagrain when picking up your starter package on THURSDAY, December 14 between 08.00 am and 06.00 pm.

Accommodation

In case you need help in finding an accommodation, write an e-mail to riderscup@wagrain-kleinarl.at with your arrival- and departure date and we're happy to assist. Please note that you will only receive an offer with possible accommodations, but the booking itself has to be made on your own. Of course, you can also search on our website www.wagrain-kleinarl.at and book immediately. This is the race location: <https://goo.gl/maps/CIHzT>
